Fifth International Symposium on Chinese Applied Linguistics

Keynote Speakers:
Professor Agnes Weiyun He
Stony Brook University New York
Professor Zhuo Jing-Schmidt
University of Oregon Eugene

Topics:
- Chinese as a second language processes & development
- Data-driven pedagogy
- Discourse analysis & discourse grammar

FRIDAY-SATURDAY
APRIL 22-23, 2016
University Capitol Centre
Iowa City, Iowa

Registration Fee
$80 Non-Students
$40 Students

Sponsored by: The Confucius Institute at the University of Iowa, International Programs, Hanban, UI Center for Asian Pacific Studies (CAPS), Division of World Languages, Literatures and Cultures (DWLLC), and Office for the Vice President of Research

Visit our website for registration and additional information international.uiowa.edu/confucius

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Erin Mullins in advance at erin-mullins@uiowa.edu.