Beginning Chinese I (3 credits from UIOWA)

This is a four-week Chinese language program including two weekends from July 5-30, 2016. It is offered by the Department of Asian and Slavic Languages and Literatures through the Division of Continuing Education at the University of Iowa. Iowa high school students in any grade with zero Chinese background or novice level can apply for this program. This program is supported by a STARTALK grant from the National Security Agency. The tuition, textbooks, and lunches will be covered by the grant. Students who travel from other cities daily or stay with their friends in Iowa/Coralville area may qualify for transportation subside. Successful completion of this program will earn 3 UI credits. Students could earn dual-credits through the Post-Secondary Enrollment Options. The program will incorporate various cultural activities and Chicago China town visit at no cost to the student. After the summer program, students can continue their Chinese study either in their own high school Chinese Program, or at the University of Iowa, or at the UI Kirkwood Center via online courses.

We will only be able to accommodate 26 students. For application please visit http://www.uiowa.edu/~chinese; for registration, please visit http://isis.uiowa.edu and choose CHIN 1115 Beginning Chinese I. The registration begins on April 18th, 2016.
