

International Education Week: Teaching English in Spain

Aubree Miller
monday
NOVEMBER

16

12:00 to 1:00

Iowa City Public Library . Meeting Room A

The North American Teaching Assistants in Spain program is designed by the Spanish Ministry of Science and Education to develop cultural understanding between citizens of Spain and the United States and Canada. Grantees share their language and culture with students in elementary, secondary and foreign language schools throughout Spain. Aubree will discuss her two-year experience as a teaching assistant in southern Spain, sharing insight into the Spanish educational system, teaching techniques used both inside and outside the classroom, as well as personal lessons learned while living and working in Spain.

Aubree Miller is a 2005 graduate of the University of Iowa with a B.A. in Spanish and an International Business certificate. She studied abroad in San Sebastián, Spain during her undergraduate studies and returned to Spain years later to teach English at a secondary school in Andalucía. She currently works at the University of Iowa Office for Study Abroad promoting study and work abroad programs.

Free and Open to the Public. Refreshments will be served!

This event is sponsored by University of Iowa International Programs, Iowa City Public Library and the Stanley-UI Foundation Support Organization.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires an accommodation to participate in this program, please contact Amy Green, IP External Relations Secretary, in advance at: 319-335-1433.