THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

Outstanding International Achievement Award

Who can be nominated?

An individual UI student and a community member living in the state of Iowa.

Name of the award:

Outstanding International Achievement Award

Award explanation: (will be presented as a plaque)

The Outstanding International Achievement Award is granted to an individual UI student and a greater UI community member during International Education Week for significant accomplishments in advancing international understanding and education to their university, community, state, country or world.

More about International Education Week:

International Education Week is an opportunity to celebrate the benefits of international education and exchange worldwide.

This joint initiative of the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Department of Education is part of their efforts to promote programs that prepare Americans for a global environment and attract future leaders from abroad to study, learn, and exchange experiences in the United States.

Nomination application needs to contain the following items:

- a letter establishing the candidate's qualifications with clear and concise detail
- two letters of support
- any additional information that would substantiate the nomination

General guidelines:

- Briefly describe how the nominee has shown a substantial commitment to international education or understanding
- How has their work, service or involvement impacted others?
- Describe the significance of their contribution.
