

Would you like to teach English,

study, or do research abroad for an academic year at no cost?

(U.S. citizens only)

7th Annual INTENSIVE FULBRIGHT U.S. STUDENT PROGRAM WORKSHOP

FRIDAY, JANUARY 25, 2019

8:45 am - 12:00 pm

Big Ten Theater (RM 348 IMU)

Samantha Westphal
Fulbright ETA 2017-18 | Argentina

Visualize your future with Fulbright!

Please join UI Fulbright Program Advisor Karen Wachsmuth and Fulbright Faculty Mentors to find out more about opportunities to teach English, study, research, or do creative work abroad! This session will cover application basics for undergraduate and graduate applicants from all fields.

- Information session on why, how, and when you should apply for a Fulbright
- Sessions with expert UI Fulbright Faculty Mentors on writing proposals and personal statements in the humanities and STEM fields
- Panel and Q & A session with successful UI Fulbright faculty and student grantees

Register: bit.ly/UIFulbrightWorkshop

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Karen Wachsmuth in advance at karen-wachsmuth@uiowa.edu or 319-335-1436.

International Programs