IRONIC ENCOUNTERS:
Posthumanitarian Storytelling in Slum Tourist Media

WED, OCTOBER 14 | 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM | 315 PHILLIPS HALL

This talk will discuss three high-profile texts produced by visitors of Kibera, a densely populated, low-income community in Nairobi, Kenya. Embodying the “ironic encounter” genre, these three texts ultimately justify slum tourism as a humanitarian act.

This event is sponsored by the African Studies Program and International Programs.
For more information, please visit: international.uiowa.edu/academic/african-studies

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires an accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Jim Gilbin in advance at james-gilbin@uiowa.edu.