THE CZECH REPUBLIC, THE EUROPEAN UNION AND THE UNITED STATES IN A TUMULTUOUS WORLD

Jiří Ellinger, head of the Political Section of the Czech Embassy in Washington, DC, talks about the Czech Republic’s road to the European Union, the Czech EU Presidency in 2009 and current Czech positions in EU foreign political as well as economic debates, while framing it into the continuous Czech striving for a strong alliance with the United States.

Jiří Ellinger currently serves as the Head of the Political Section at the Embassy of the Czech Republic in Washington DC. He previously served as the director of the cabinet (Chief of Staff) of the Minister of Foreign Affairs (2005-2006). He joined the Czech foreign service in 2001. Mr. Ellinger studied history at Charles University in Prague (1992-1997) and at Queen’s College, Oxford, UK (1999-2000). He obtained his PhD in modern history from Charles University in 2006. He is co-author of Czech Lands in European History After 1918 (in Czech, 2006) and author of From Appeasement to War: Neville Chamberlain (in Czech, 2009).
