PRESENTS

EUROPEAN STUDIES GROUP PRESENTS

CONFRONTING TRANSNATIONAL HISTORIES
VIOLENCE, PROTESTS, AND MIGRATION IN ARAS ÖREN’S UNEXPECTED VISITOR

TALK BY YASEMIN MOHAMMAD

FRIDAY, APRIL 14
4:00 pm | 315 Phillips Hall

Yasemin Mohammad is an assistant professor in the UI Department of German. Her research interests are 20th and 21st century German Literature, Arab-German and Turkish-German writers. She is currently working on her book manuscript that examines the ways in which Turkish-German and Arab-German writers negotiate German national memory and identity. Her additional research interests include Turkish-German cinema, German exile and travel literature, German and British orientalism, Ottoman-German relations, memory studies, and migration studies.

This event is sponsored by the UI International Programs and the European Studies Group.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires an accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Luis Martin-Estudillo in advance at luis-martin-estudillo@uiowa.edu or 319-335-2229.