PUBLIC TEARS AND SECRETS OF THE HEART: POPULISM, SECESSIONISM, AND THE QUESTION OF DEMOCRATIC EXCESS

TALK BY PROFESSOR L. ELENA DELGADO

FRIDAY, APRIL 7
2:30pm | 315 Phillips Hall

L. Elena Delgado is professor of Spanish, critical theory, gender and women's studies, and global studies, at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Her talk will present an analysis of the pro-independence referenda in Scotland and Catalonia and their connection with broader discussions of populism, social protest movements, and the limits of democratic representation.

This event is sponsored by: UI International Programs, the European Studies Group, and Digital Bridges for Humanistic Inquiry: A collaboration between Grinnell College and The University of Iowa funded by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events.
