The Fund for Education Abroad (FEA) invests in promising students with financial need who wish to study abroad.

Eligibility Requirements:
- U.S. citizen or permanent resident
- Current undergraduate, degree-seeking student in good standing
- Spring 2019 study abroad program for academic credit starting any time between January and April 2019 that is a minimum of 28 days in duration
- Demonstrated financial need
- FEA gives preference to students that are underrepresented in education abroad such as First Generation, minority, and community college (transfer) students

Submission Deadline: Tuesday, September 18, 11 am Central Standard Time

For more information visit: fundforeducationabroad.org