Come learn about this course that is a 5-week field school at the Greco-Roman site of Gangivecchio in Sicily. While in Italy, students will learn the most up-to-date Sicilian methods of excavation while earning 3 semester hours of resident credit, mediated through Dr. Glenn Storey. Students will excavate one by one meter units in Particella 19 in order to expose structural elements of the known Roman villa in that field.