

AFRICAN STUDIES PROGRAM

The University of Iowa African Studies Program cordially invites faculty, students, and the general public to the following presentations on Monday, March 29, at 12 noon in UCC 1117 (International Commons). Light refreshments will be provided.

"Educating African Sexuality: Processes of Gendering in African HIV/AIDS Instructional Films"

Presenter: Allison McGuffie (PhD candidate, Cinema and Comparative Literature)

"Press Freedom in Ghana: a comparative analysis of the Nkrumah and Kufuor regimes"

Presenter: Etse Sikanku (PhD candidate, Journalism and Mass Communication)

This event is sponsored by the University of Iowa African Studies Program. For more information, contact Edward Miner at 355-5883 or edward-miner@uiowa.edu.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa Events. If you are a person with a disability who requires an accommodation in order to participate, please contact Heidi Vekemans at 335-3862.