Calligraphy Class
Sponsored by the Confucius Institute

October 10th - December 12th
5:30pm-6:30pm
1124 UCC

9 classes for $80
Registration open to persons 14 and older

Class Topics include:
• Introduction to the developmental history of Chinese characters and the art of Chinese calligraphy
• Famous calligraphic masterpieces
• Guided practice of Chinese calligraphy both with a Chinese writing brush and a contemporary hard pen

Calligraphy class instructor, Wenwen Fu is a graduate of Hanzhou Normal University where she majored in Chinese Language and Literature. After graduation, Ms. Fu taught Chinese at a middle school in Hanzhou for two years and is now pursuing her master's degree in Educational Psychology at the University of Iowa.

Enrollment forms available at http://international.uiowa.edu/confucius or by contacting confucius@uiowa.edu

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires an accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Erin Mullins in advance at 319-335-3857.