FESTIVAL ARTS, CARNIVAL, AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 23, 2014
6–8 P.M.
ROOM 2520D, UCC

This event is sponsored by the Caribbean, Diaspora, and Atlantic Studies program (CDA), International Programs, the Obermann Center, the UI Center for Human Rights, the School of Urban and Regional Planning, and the Division of Performing Arts.

A panel discussion featuring:
• Darryl Montana, Big Chief of the Yellow Pocahontas Mardi Gras Indian Tribe
• Sabrina Mays-Montana, founder and president of Faces of Culture/Allison Montana Institute of Art, Culture, and Tradition
• John Englebrecht, program director, Public Space One
• Richard Turner, UI professor of religious studies
• Loyce Arthur, UI professor of theatre arts

international.uiowa.edu/cda