

COURSE NUMBER: 152:152:SCA OR SCB

BATTLEFIELD EARTH:

Global Health and Violent Conflict

GLOBAL HEALTH STUDIES CONFERENCE, SPRING 2014

New forms of armed conflict and civil wars have steadily increased, disrupting fragile health infrastructures, and bringing death and injury to combatants and civilians alike.

This conference will examine the many interfaces between violent conflict and health, including increased spread of infectious disease, exploitation of vulnerable populations, degradation of the global environment, and prevention of violence through health promotion.

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND TO REGISTER:

<http://international.uiowa.edu/global-health/events>

FOR ANY FURTHER QUESTIONS, CONTACT:

CHRISTINE C. BRUNNER LUSE, CONFERENCE COORDINATOR
CHRISTINE-BRUNNERLUSE@UIOWA.EDU

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Christine C. Brunner Luse in advance at 319-431-5167.

CONFERENCE INCLUDES
LIVE THEATER PERFORMANCE

VANG

A theatrical presentation highlighting the refugee and immigrant experiences of Hmong, Mexican and Sudanese families as they "survive the horrific and find solace in their farms and gardens" in Iowa.

TIME AND LOCATION

Friday, March 28
3:00PM - 9:00PM | IMU BALLROOM
Saturday, March 29
9:00AM - 5:00PM | W10 PBB
Sunday, March 30
9:30AM - 1:00PM | W10 PBB