

Russia

The Pushkin Institute in Moscow

Information Session

Wednesday, February 26

2:30 - 3:30 p.m.

Study Abroad

1111-B UCC

Program Overview

The University of Iowa offers two programs through the Pushkin Institute in Moscow for students to study abroad in the summer. This program offers students intensive Russian language courses as well as culture courses. Additionally, a course in political science may be offered*. Moscow is the capital of Russia and is a major political, economic, cultural and scientific hub for Russia and Eurasia. Students earn resident credit.

For more information, visit: international.uiowa.edu/study-abroad

*The political science course has not yet been determined.

The University of Iowa reserves the right to change without notice any statement in this flyer concerning, but not limited to policies, program fees, program dates, and courses.

The University of Iowa prohibits discrimination in employment and in its educational programs and activities on the basis of race, national origin, color, creed, religion, sex, age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or associational preference. The University also affirms its commitment to providing equal opportunities and equal access to University facilities. For additional information on nondiscrimination policies, please contact the Coordinator of Title IX and Section 504, and the ADA in the Office of Affirmative Action, (319) 335-0705 (voice) or (319) 335-0697 (text), The University of Iowa, 202 Jessup Hall, Iowa City, IA 52242-1316