Please join us for an informal talk by University of Iowa Professor Jonathan Wilcox, UI Department of English. Wilcox will share experiences from his Fulbright Scholar teaching and research grant to Iceland in Fall 2019 at the University of Iceland, where he explored the topic of Viking-Age North Sea culture, specifically medieval connections between Iceland and England.

Under Wachsmuth’s dynamic and innovative leadership as UI Fulbright Program advisor, the University of Iowa was named a top producer of Fulbright students for 2019-20, by The Chronicle of Higher Education. This marks the fourth consecutive year the university has achieved the elite ranking.
