FROM MANILA TO MEXICO

the Art and History of Early Modern Trade with Asia

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20 • 4PM • 1117 UCC

Presentation given by Dana Leibsohn.

Leibsohn is the Priscilla Paine Van der Poel Professor of Art at Smith College in Northampton, Massachusetts.

This event is free and open to the public.

Focusing on silver and ceramics, consumers and craftsmen, this presentation explores the role of trans-Pacific exchange in the early modern period. Of particular interest are the diverse meanings created by foreign things through their travel from Asia to the Americas.

This event is sponsored by International Programs, the Latin American Studies Program, the Department of Spanish and Portuguese, and the School of Art and Art History in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.
