MASK, PUPPET, AND COMMUNITY PARADE WORKSHOPS
WITH SANDRA SPIELER

THURS. OCT. 16, 3:30-5:30 P.M.
FRIDAY, OCT. 17, 1:30-4:30 P.M.
ROOM 156 OF THE THEATRE BUILDING

Ms. Spieler will work with students to conceptualize large scale mask and puppet designs that reflect community issues for public street performances such as the May Day Heart of the Beast parade and the Iowa City Carnival Project.

Sponsored by: Caribbean Diaspora and Atlantic Studies Program, International Programs, and Division of Performing Arts

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 16 | 7:00-8:30 p.m. | Public Space One gallery | 120 N Dubuque St.

PANELISTS
• Sandra Spieler, Artistic Director, In The Heart of the Beast Puppet & Mask Theatre
• John Englebrecht, Director, Public Space One
• Kalmia Strong, artist, Public Space One
• Anita Jung, School of Art & Art History
• Jennifer Shook, puppeteer & PhD candidate in English and the Center for the Book
• Loyce Arthur, Theatre Arts

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Tiffany Schier at tiffany-schier@uiowa.edu or 335-2700.