NOTA ROJA:
JUSTICE IN THE GOLDEN AGE OF MEXICAN POLICE NEWS

The Second Charles A. Hale Memorial Lecture

WITH GUEST SPEAKER
PABLO PICCATO

The talk will examine crime and police newspapers and magazines in Mexico between the 1930s and 1960s, when the role of reporters as detectives and criminals as public figures shaped social views of justice and the truth behind crime.

Pablo Piccato is a professor of history and the director of the Institute of Latin American Studies at Columbia University in New York City.

This event is free and open to the public.
