U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE TRAVEL ALERTS AND WARNINGS CHECK

Prior to consideration for UI funding for international travel, you need to verify that your destination(s) are currently NOT under any U.S. Department of State warning. Go to the website below and enter your destination(s) in the “Refine by Destination” search bar. If you find no current warning or alert, you may continue with your application.

<https://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/alertswarnings.html>

If there is a current warning or alert, contact International Programs at safety-abroad@uiowa.edu to discuss your proposed travel plans and request guidelines for drafting a travel proposal for the International Programs Travel Advisory Committee (IPTAC) for review. Funding will not be released without approval from IPTAC.

Language Qualifications

What is the primary local language in your destination and the proficiency level required for your project?

What languages do you speak and at what proficiency level?

How many years/semesters have you studied each language (please include pre-college study as well!)?

Relevant Experience

Describe any international experiences related to your project. Please include the country visited, the length of stay, and the purpose of the visit (i.e. study abroad, research, volunteer, personal travel, etc.).

Describe any previous or current teaching/tutoring or job experiences related to your project.

Indicate any honors and achievements you have received. Examples include scholarships, national fellowships, student organizations, extracurricular activities, service, publications, conferences, etc.

Goals

Briefly describe your current postgraduate career goals as specifically as possible (i.e., I plan to attend law school in order to work as an international policy advisor).

Grants and Fellowships Permission Form and Waiver International Programs, University of Iowa

- 1) I understand that it is an honor and privilege to apply for an award in the competition at the University of Iowa. By my signature below, I acknowledge that both my personal reputation and the reputation of the University would benefit from the manner in which I represent myself and the University of Iowa. I will do everything within my control to safeguard my good name and that of the University of Iowa throughout the award competition period.
- 2) I certify that all of the information included in my application for this award, including listings of activities and awards, research undertaken or planned, and personal statements or other essays, are my own work and are accurate and honest to the best of my knowledge.
- 3) I grant permission for International Programs to publish in print, electronic, or video format my biographical information and the likeness or image of myself to publicize my nomination and/or receipt of any scholarship, fellowship, or travel award. I also consent to have a copy of my application and all supporting materials retained indefinitely in International Programs and understand that it may be made available to future applicants (with personal identifiers redacted) as an example for them to review as they prepare their own applications. I agree to keep International Programs informed to the best of my ability as to my standing in future competitions.
- 4) I hereby waive my right to view faculty and institutional letters of recommendation or endorsement which are written for the purpose of this award competition. While copies of these letters may be provided to me by the authors, I understand that this is done as a courtesy by the author and does not affect this waiver.
- 5) As required under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, commonly known as FERPA, I hereby give permission for my grade point average (GPA), transcripts, individual course grades, and individual assignment grades to be used and discussed as a part of faculty and institutional letters of recommendation and endorsements and the applications for this award competition. I also give permission for International Programs to request unofficial and official copies of my transcript(s) as part of the application process.
- 6) I give permission for International Programs to access my student conduct record. I understand this information will be made available only to qualified people who need to see it in the course of their duties.

By typing your name below, you certify that you've read and agree to the above terms. You agree your electronic signature is the legal equivalent of your manual signature.
