

Dr. M.R. Rajagopal Visit

September 17

8am

Internal Medicine Library,
GH SE324
Moving Knowledge,
Not People: Project Echo

12pm

MERF 2117
Treat the Suffering, Not Just Diseases

4:30-6pm

College of Nursing Building,
20 CNB
The Global Impact of U.S.
Opioid Policies

September 18

12pm

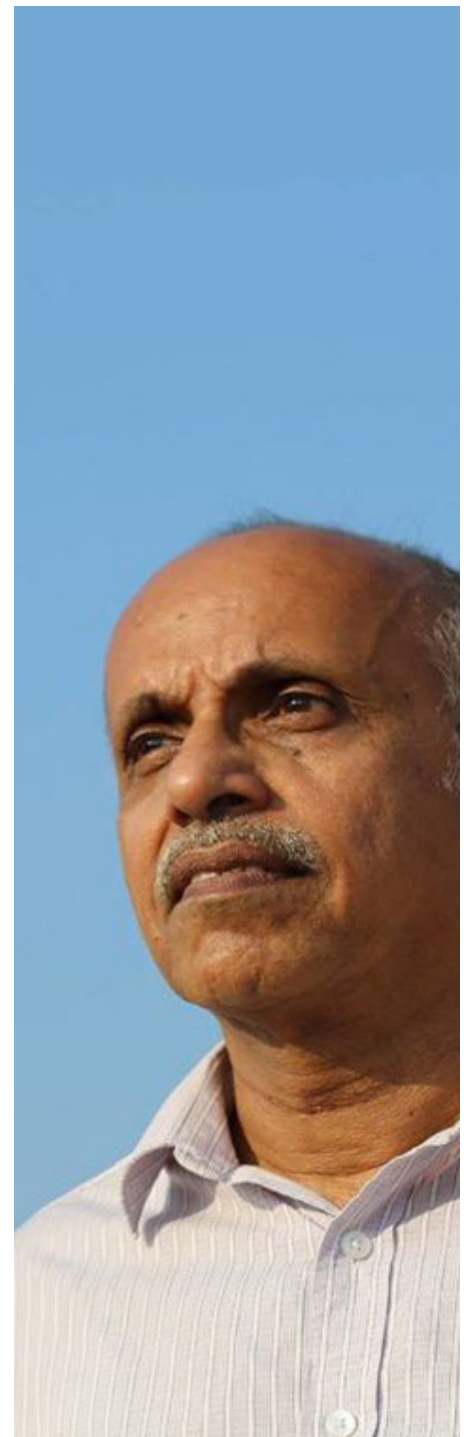

Foreign Relations Council
luncheon - Congregational Church
Palliative Care is Everyone's Business: Social Capital and Community Participation
Free if not eating lunch

4-5:30pm

College of Pharmacy Banker
Room, PHAR 115
Developing the Role of the Pharmacist in India

6-9pm

University Athletic Club
Dying Well: A Community
Forum on Palliative Care
in Iowa and in India
Refreshments are served

Dr. M. R. Rajagopal is the founder-chairman of Pallium India, a palliative care non-governmental organization based out of Kerala, India. A 2018 nominee for the Nobel Peace Prize, he has been referred to as the 'father of palliative care in India' (first by the New York Times) in honor of his significant contribution to the Indian palliative care scene. Dr. Rajagopal was awarded the 'Padma Shri,' one of the highest civilian honors, by the government of India in 2018 and 'Alison Des Forges Award for Extraordinary Activism' by Human Rights Watch in 2014.

International Programs

Co-sponsored by

College of Nursing
College of Pharmacy
University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics
Supportive and Palliative Care Program

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Ann Broderick in advance at ann-broderick@uiowa.edu, or 319-321-6962.