This event is sponsored by the Latin American Studies Program, the UI Department of History and International Programs.

ALIAS "DON LUIS"

The True Tales and Amazing Adventures of a Sixteenth-Century Algonkian Who Traveled the Seas and Saw Three Continents ...and why he came home boiling mad

a talk by Camilla Townsend

Wednesday, February 16
4 p.m. in Schaeffer Hall 302

This event is free and open to the public.

Camilla Townsend is Professor of History at Rutgers University and a recent recipient of a Guggenheim Fellowship. Her books on the relations between indigenous people and Europeans in the Americas have spanned Mexico, the Andes and the Chesapeake.

For more information visit:
http://international.uiowa.edu

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires an accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Catherine Komisaruk at catherine-komisaruk@uiowa.edu, Amber Brian at amber-brian@uiowa.edu or call (319) 335-2299.