Would you like to teach English, study, or do research abroad at no cost?

International Scholarships, Grants, and Fellowships

OPEN HOUSE

Thursday, September 28, 3:30-5:30 pm
1117 University Capitol Centre

Are you interested in the possibility of international study, research, or teaching? Please join International Programs for our International Scholarships, Grants, and Fellowships Open House to learn how you can apply for different types of merit-based awards, such as the Fulbright U.S. Student Program, the Stanley Awards for International Research, the German Academic Exchange Service Awards (DAAD), the Critical Language Scholarships, and the Boren Awards. You’ll also have the chance to meet former Stanley, Fulbright, and DAAD student grantees who will share their stories and experiences abroad.

3:30-4:30 pm: Grants Information Session with Karen Wachsmuth, associate director of International Fellowships and former UI Stanley, Fulbright, and DAAD student grantees.

4:30-5:30 pm: Open House Reception for faculty Fulbright mentors and grantees, staff, and students

Stanley awardee Jacquelyn Whitman on the coast of Western Ireland

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Karen Wachsmuth in advance at 319-335-1436.

Please direct questions to: Karen Wachsmuth, associate director, International Fellowships, karen-wachsmuth@uiowa.edu, 319-335-1436.