

FULBRIGHT

LUNCH & LEARN SEMINAR SERIES - SPRING 2016

PRESENTATION BY
GEORGE BERGUS, M.D., M.A.

Professor in the Department of Family
Medicine and Sahal Family Professor of Medical Education

—

NEGOTIATING CULTURAL BOUNDARIES: TEACHING CLINICAL MEDICINE IN JORDAN

—

FRI, APRIL 8TH FROM 12:30-1:20 PM
1117 UNIVERSITY CAPITOL CENTRE

BRING YOUR LUNCH AND JOIN US!

As a 2012 Fulbright scholar, George Bergus taught Family Medicine at the Jordan University of Science and Technology and provided care to patients at a health center in Irbid, Jordan. During this time, he also traveled to Palestine and visited the Ramallah Friends School. His work and travels resulted in numerous opportunities to reflect on interpersonal and international boundaries.

Series co-sponsors: Iowa Chapter, Fulbright Association & UI International Programs

Series Coordinator: Sonia Gunderson, sonia-gunderson@uiowa.edu

For more information on Fulbright visit: INTERNATIONAL.UIOWA.EDU/FUNDING/STUDENTS/AWARDS/FULBRIGHT

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Karen Wachsmuth in advance at karen-wachsmuth@uiowa.edu.