It is a faculty-led program offered by the Department of Asian and Slavic Languages and Literatures. It runs from June 1 – July 31 every summer. It is established in 2006.
The program offers:

- Eight UI credit: a four-credit Chinese Language course, a three-credit cultural course, and a one-credit Cultural Practice course. All credits can be counted to either UI Gen. Education or Chinese major/minor requirements.
- Field trips and cultural excursions: Two-day Beijing and Great Wall tour, three-day national historical site tour, weekly local-cultural site visits.
- Language partners from the local university.
- A weekend Chinese family visit.
For detailed information please visit:

https://asian-slavic.uiowa.edu/undergraduate-programs/chinese/study-abroad
Program Fees: approximately $4,500 for Iowa residents and 5,500 for non-residents. All expenses are included in the Program--dorm, food, tuition, field trips, language partners, airport pick up and more!

The following scholarships support the program: (https://asian-slavic.uiowa.edu/undergraduate-programs/scholarships)

- Cheng/Liu Scholarship
- CAPS Study Abroad Scholarship
- Stanley Summer Study Abroad Scholarship
- Critical Language Scholarship
- Freeman Study Abroad Scholarship
The Cultural Street in Tianjin
Study Abroad Program in Tianjin, China

- 2018 Iowa students in Tianjin Program

YouTube Link